

Linda Mandolini, CASA Technical Committee

President | Eden Housing

Linda Mandolini has served Eden Housing as a Project Developer, as Director of Real Estate Development, and since 2001 as President. She oversees affordable housing production, resident support services, and property management components of the organization, and a staff of more than 340 employees. She is guided in her work by Eden's active, volunteer Board of Directors.

Under Ms. Mandolini's strong leadership, Eden has become one of the most productive and successful nonprofit affordable housing developers in California. Eden has received numerous awards including being named as a Best Place to Work in the Bay Area in 2012, 2015, and 2016 and Healthiest Employers in the Bay Area by the San Francisco Business Times for the past five years in a row (2012-2016).

Ms. Mandolini received her A.B. from Wheaton College in Massachusetts and earned a master's of Business Administration at Boston University.

Eden Housing revitalizes California communities through its affordable housing development and property management activities, through the partnerships it establishes and the investments it makes in California neighborhoods, and through the resident services programs it provides to meet the needs of its residents.

Since its founding in 1968, Eden Housing has developed or acquired 7,450 affordable housing units in nearly 100 properties that have provided homes for more than 65,000 people. Eden currently has more than 1,000 units in its immediate pipeline.

Eden's housing now includes rental apartments, cooperatives, and supportive living environments for families, seniors, and people with disabilities. Eden has so far partnered with 29 cities in 10 California counties and it is rapidly expanding its geographical operations to new communities, including the greater Sacramento area, the Central Valley, and Southern California.
